Home Insurance: Dos and Don'ts

Make sure you're protected in case of emergency

With the recent flooding in Kelowna and area, it is an opportune time to review the necessity of proper home insurance coverage. Almost everyone knows a horror story of someone who found themselves liable when they needed their policy to protect them. Here a few dos and don'ts to keep in mind as you review your policy:

DO make sure that your home is covered for replacement cost. There are guaranteed replacement cost coverage policies that ensure that you will be covered even if there is a shortfall due to the replacement cost being underestimated.

DON'T make renovations or add a pool or spa before you notify your insurance agent. Renovations will increase the value of the property and a pool or spa adds risk. Your agent will need to know to make sure you are properly covered.

DO review your home inventory on an annual basis and keep your agent informed of any high value purchases. Keeping a current list of your belongings, complete with pictures of valuable items as well as notation of brand and date of purchase, will save you a lot of hassle when you go to make a claim. Store it offsite where it will be safe in case of fire or flood.

DON'T fail to notify your agent if you share your home with a relative, friend or renters. Renters will need their own rental insurance to cover their belongings.

DO consider a separate endowment for items of especial value. That priceless heirloom jewellery or fine art may be irreplaceable in your heart but you want to make sure it is adequately covered. You can have it appraised and insured separately to make sure the value is determined in advance.
